

Points to consider:

When selecting the winner, ask yourself the following questions:

Do the illustrations represent the story in a way that increases your understanding and appreciation of the story?

Do the illustrations match the story, theme, or mood?

Are the illustrations a good example of the artistic technique used?

Examples of some possible techniques include: watercolor, photography, pen & ink, oils, cut paper, collage, gouache, colored pencil, and mixed media

Are the illustrations appropriate for the intended audience (children up to age 14)?

Scan me to vote online

Scan me for the book list

Outer Cape Mock Caldecott

Truro Public Library
Truro Central School
Provincetown Public Library
Provincetown IB Schools

2026 Ballot

Please vote for your favorite book by Friday, January 23, 2026

Find the results of the official election at #alayma

PLEASE VOTE FOR YOUR FAVORITE PICTURE BOOK BY PLACING AN X IN THE BOX NEXT TO THE TITLE

Wind Watchers

Illustrated and written by Micha Archer

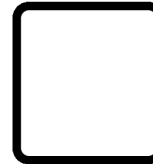

Safe Crossing

Illustrated and written by Kari Percival

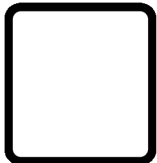

Cat Nap

Illustrated and written by Brian Lies

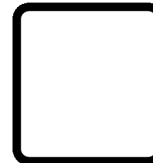

How Sweet the Sound

Illustrated by Charly Palmer, written by Kwame Alexander

Fireworks

Illustrated by Catia Chien, written by Matthew Burgess

Outside In and the Inside Out

Illustrated and written by Emmy Kastner

