5.1 Superintendent Costigan presented the proposed 22 - 23 school year calendar. Some updates to next year's calendar include a set date for TCS Open House in September. Columbus Day has been renamed Indigenous Peoples' Day after receiving feedback from School Committee members, families, and faculty. The school year terms will be approximately 60 days each term.

Vida Richter moved to approve the 22 - 23 school year calendar as presented, second by Christine Roderick, roll call vote, 3 - 0.

Vida Richter - yes

Christine Roderick - yes

Kolby Blehm - yes

5.2 Principal Riley reported there was an all-school meeting to celebrate the TCS Readathon. The meeting was for K - 5 students who were divided up into cross-grade teams to create undersea creatures and murals. Mr. Riley shared a brief video of the all-school meeting with the committee. The meeting coincided with High Five Friday, with the TPD greeting students in the morning and then coming back in the afternoon to participate in creating sea creatures to be hung in the school library.

6. Subcommittees: None

7. New Business: Superintendent Evaluation - Committee members submit individual evaluations to the Chair based on the DESE evaluation report. The TSC Chair compiles the individual evaluations into one Evaluation Report. Please see the attached End of Cycle Summative Evaluation Report for Superintendent Costigan.
