Mission Statement

The Truro School System fosters a healthy, secure, and supportive atmosphere, which develops the intellectual, physical, social, and creative potential of each individual. We are a nurturing community that challenges and prepares students to accept the responsibilities of citizenship and leadership, and to recognize and assess critically the values and directions of our global society. Throughout the curriculum and in all activities, we endeavor to create a positive, productive atmosphere that promotes respect for learning, self-esteem, concern for others, and mastery of decision-making skills.
