PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: October 30, 2023

Town Moderator Announces Further Continuance of Special Town Meeting

Special Town Meeting was continued on Saturday, October 21, 2023, at 10:00 am to November 2nd, 5:30 pm pursuant to GL.c.39,§ 10, for up to 14 days.

On November 2nd at 5:30 p.m. at Truro Central School, the Town Moderator will continue the Special Town Meeting for an additional 14 days until November 16th at 5:30 pm at the Truro Central School in order to allow for the pending voter registration challenges to be heard and resolved.

The Town Clerk continues to prepare for the Board of Registrar hearings of the sixty-six voter registration challenges, with anticipation of those hearings commencing soon. For more information, please view the Town Clerk webpage: <https://www.truro-ma.gov/town-clerk>

While voters are welcome to attend the November 2nd meeting, the Moderator will only open the meeting and continue it for up to another 14 days pursuant to GL.c.39,§ 10. There will be no check-in for voters and the Town Moderator will not be taking any motions, questions or undertaking any of the business on the special town meeting warrant.

The Town of Truro continues its tradition of providing childcare services for working families available through the Community Services Department, and Seniors are always welcome to take advantage of transportation services from their residence to and from Special Town Meeting. Additional information for both of those services can be found by calling (508) 413-9507, for more information on transportation, visit www.truro-ma.gov/council-on-aging. The Recreation/Beach Division is offering childcare, for more information or to sign up, visit www.trurorec.com.

Thank you again for your patience and cooperation during this process.
